TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 15.

FEMALE ANARCHISTS .- "I have no use for a man who is too big a coward to make bombs to kill the police. If you won't make bombs I'll leave you." This was what Mrs. Clara Paech, of Chicago said, with all the Clara Paech, of Chicago said, with all the violence of a virago, to her husband, Rudolph, on Sunday night. At the same time Miss Johanna Oppitz, Rudolph's sister-inlaw, dashed a bucket of water in his face, and old man Oppitz joined in the melee and caught his son-in-law by the neck. Rudolph swore he would not make bombs to please his anarchist wife and her family: that he was a law abiding citizen; that we was no coward, and no anarchist. He would not was a law abiding citizen; that we was no coward, and no anarchist. He would not stand more abuse from them, so he appeared before Justice White's police court yesterday and obtained warrants for the three, charging his sister in law with assault and the others with disorderly conduct. They were arrested and held in bail of $200 each.

FIELDEN AND SCHWAB IN PRISON.-Mich ael Schwab and Samuel Fielden, the an archists, were taken out of court solitary yes terday looking hearty and bright, and were put to work. Schwab was put in the convict kitchen, where his work will be to help peel potatoes, chop hash, and prepare the convicts' food. Filden was assigned to the stone department. the stone department.

'Her face so fair, as flesh it seemed not, But heavenly portrait of bright angel's hue. Clear as the sky, without a blame or blot. Through goodly mixture of complexions due. And in her cheeks the vermeil red did show.

And in her cheeks the vermeil red did show."

This is the poet's description of a woman whose physical system was in a perfectly sound and healthy state, with every function acting properly, and is the enviable condition of its fair patrons produced by Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," Any druggist.
